Seattle International Foundation

Seattle International Foundation (SIF) promotes good governance and equity in Central America through the rule of law and the strengthening of civil society.

Central America Donors Forum

The Central America Donors Forum (CADF) is the premier networking and learning space to advance philanthropy and development efforts in Central America. Each year, CADF brings together over 400 leaders from business, philanthropy, government, and civil society to discuss priority issues and successful models of development, and explore co-investment for social impact.

3 Days

CADF is filled with engaging panels, workshops, networking opportunities, site visits and artistic presentations.

400 Attendees

The 2018 Forum included over 400 attendees from 14 countries across the world.

82% Senior-Level

The majority of attendees are decision-making leaders at the senior level.

120 Speakers

In total, over 120 speakers took the stage in the 2018 Forum, which included over 40 panels, workshops and keynote sessions.
The 2019 Central America Donors Forum will take place on October 23-25 in Tegucigalpa, Honduras.

ENGAGE ON KEY ISSUES
Rooted firmly in the realities of Central America, the 2019 Central America Donors Forum will take discussions into the realm of deeper understanding and potential solutions for the region's greatest challenges.

EXPAND YOUR NETWORK
Each year, the Forum brings together 400 leaders from business, philanthropy, government, and civil society to discuss priority issues and successful models of development. In 2018, 100% of surveyed attendees established relationships with organizations and individuals that will advance their work.

INCREASE YOUR BRAND RECOGNITION
Our sponsors enjoy tremendous exposure and a wide variety of promotional benefits, including customized marketing campaigns, brand visibility, complimentary tickets, international media coverage and the opportunity to host a private session. Share your organization’s impact at CADF 2019.
